

Lowercroft Creative Club

Characters 3—Draw and Tell

Draw and tell is a really fun creative game that any age group can play and the rules are very simple too. What you must do is cut out the three sets of cards, fold them up so you can't see what is written on them, and put them in three bowls (being sure not to combine them). When you have done that, pick one card from each bowl and draw a picture of what you see. When you have done that, have a go at writing a super short story (which can take any form) that involves the picture you have drawn.

A rabbit

sitting on a mountain

A sandwich

eating

a lion

A bee

cuddling

a magician

A tree

running after a dancer

A pair of underpants

jumping over

an athlete

A bin

holding hands with a king

A queen

pushing over

a flower

A unicorn

inside

a clown

A cheeseburger

combined with a superhero

A dinosaur

on top of a bed

If you do not have a printer, you can always cut up strips of paper and write each card separately before you play.

